

- Callback Functions - callbacks involve passing a function as an argument to another function. Can be called anytime and passed arguments within their containing function.